

Character design

I painted colour thumbnails and final character turnarounds. I used photoshop to paint. I am inspired by a winter flower called camelia. I think I could make a character non human later. It is because I really like monsters.